Mie Multicultural Coexistence Event

January 31, 2026 (Sat) 10:00–15:00

Venue: Mie Kenmin Koryu Center

(Ust Tsu 3rd Floor, 700 Hadokoro-cho, Tsu City, Mie)

Mie Prefecture designates January as “Mie Multicultural Coexistence Month.”

On Saturday, January 31, we will have a dialogue session in the morning and interactive activities in the afternoon. Admission is free. Everyone is welcome!

Talk Event: “Discussing the Current Situation of Multicultural Coexistence”

The number of foreign residents and foreign workers in Japanese companies continues to grow.

How can Japanese and foreign residents acknowledge cultural differences and build a society where everyone can live in harmony?

We will discuss this topic with people involved in multicultural activities in Mie, Aichi, and Gifu.

Schedule

10:00–10:05 Opening

10:05–11:25 Panel Talk: “Living Together with Foreign Residents”

11:25–12:00 Open Session: “Talking About the Current Situation of Multicultural Coexistence”

Advance registration is required for the talk event.

Registration deadline: January 20, 2026 (Tue)

Please register via the QR code or contact us directly.

Japanese Language Only

Exchange Event: “Eat, Laugh, and Chat PARTY!”

Foreign residents and Japanese residents living in Mie will have the opportunity to talk and interact.

Let's get to know each other and build mutual understanding.

We will also have a mochi-pounding activity. For the afternoon event, no registration is required.
